

8. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This Corporate Governance Statement (CGS) is provided by the Directors of Genex Power Limited A.C.N. 152 098 854 (GNX or the Company) pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 4.10.3 and reports against the ASX Corporate Governance Council's 'Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations' 4th Edition (the Recommendations) including the 8 principles and 35 specific recommendations included therein. This is the first time the Company has reported against the 4th Edition of the Recommendations. The Board has resolved to adopt and report against the 4th Edition of the Recommendations even though they are not due to come into effect until Genex's financial year ending 31 June 2021. This CGS was approved by a resolution of the Board of the Company dated 26 August 2020 and is effective as at the same date and is in addition to and supplements the Company's Appendix 4G which is lodged with the ASX together with this Annual Report to Shareholders.

	Principle 1: Lay Solid Foundations for Management and Oversight	A listed entity should clearly delineate the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and regularly review their performance.
	Recommendations
1.1	A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Company's Corporate Governance Plan includes a Board Charter, which discloses the specific responsibilities and functions of the Board and provides that the Board shall delegate responsibility for the day-to-day operations and administration of the Company to the Managing Director (MD) or equivalent which is currently the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Mr James Harding. The Board Charter also specifically outlines the role of the Board, the Company's Chairman, Individual Directors and the MD/CEO. Each function and its responsibility are outlined in the Board Charter and in various sections of this this Corporate Governance Statement, both of which are available on the Company's website. The role and responsibility of the Board, the Company's Chairman, Individual Directors and the MD/CEO is outlined in the following paragraphs of the Company's Board Charter: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Board – Paragraph 3.1; • The Chairman – Paragraph 8.1; • The Individual Directors – Paragraph 8.2; and • The MD/CEO – Paragraph 8.3. (b) The Board is responsible for, and has the authority to determine, all matters relating to the strategic direction, purpose, values, policies, practices, goals for management and the operation of the Company. Without intending to limit this general role of the Board, the specific functions and responsibilities of the Board include those matters particularised in paragraph 3.1 of the Company's Board Charter. The MD/CEO is separately responsible for the ongoing management of the Company in accordance with the strategy, purpose, values, policies and programs approved by the Board as outlined in paragraph 8.3.

1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive, or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide securityholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) Prior to the nomination of prospective non-executive directors for election or re-election, the Board must obtain from the prospective candidate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • details of other commitments of the prospective candidate (including the potential for any actual or perceived conflicts of interest at the time of the candidate's appointment or in the foreseeable future) and an indication of the time involved; and • an acknowledgement that the prospective candidate will have sufficient time to meet the requirements of non-executive directors of the Company. All of the Company's current directors have undergone bankruptcy and police checks and appropriate checks will also be undertaken prior to the appointment of any new directors to the Board or any new candidates for election. (b) When a candidate is placed before shareholders for election or re-election as a director, the names of candidates submitted is accompanied by the following information to enable shareholders to make an informed decision in relation to that vote: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • biographical details, including competencies and qualifications and information sufficient to enable an assessment of the independence of the candidate; • details of relationships between the candidate and the Company, and the candidate and directors of the company; • whether the Board considers the person to be independent; • other directorships held; • particulars of other positions which involve significant time commitments; • the term of office currently served by any director subject to re-election; • for new candidates, confirmation that the Company has conducted appropriate checks into the candidate's background and experience and whether those checks have revealed any information of concern that might affect the person's ability to perform the role or a shareholder's decision on how to vote on a resolution for the appointment of that candidate;

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a statement as to whether the Board supports the election or re-election of the candidate and the reasons why; and • any other particulars required by law.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company has an Executive Services Agreement in place with each of its executive directors, its Chief Operations Officer, CEO and a Letter of Appointment with each of its non-executive directors. All directors provide their services as directors to the entity in an individual capacity but may provide any additional services through a service entity which occurs in the case of one director.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Secretary is accountable to the Board through the Chairman on all governance matters and on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board. The Secretary is generally responsible for carrying out the administrative and legislative requirements of the Board. The Secretary holds primary responsibility for ensuring that the Board processes, procedures and policies run efficiently and effectively, and the Secretary's role of responsibilities is outlined in paragraph 8.4 of the Board Charter.
1.5	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) Through its board or a committee of the board, set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (2) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (3) either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (B) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. 	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Company has established a Diversity Policy as part of its Corporate Governance Plan. The Policy details the Board's commitment to providing an inclusive workplace and recognises the value that a workforce made up of individuals with diverse skills, values, backgrounds and experiences can bring to the Company. The Company has a commitment to gender diversity and female participation is sought in all areas of the Company's business. Decisions relating to promotion, leadership development and flexible work arrangements are based on merit and reinforce the importance of equality in the workplace. Ongoing monitoring of company policies and culture is undertaken to make sure they do not hold any group back in their professional development. (b) While the Company has not yet set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity with respect to the composition of its board, senior executives or workforce generally, the Company aims to achieve gender diversity in all areas of its business noting that the most recent appointment to the board and the most recent senior executive appointment were both women. (c)(1) As stated in (b) above, the Company has not yet set measurable objectives in terms of a specific quota or ratio but adopts an approach of aiming to achieve

		gender diversity in every new appointment to the board, at senior executive level or in the workforce generally. (c) (2) The Company is making progress towards gender diversity with the most recent board and senior executive appointments both being women. The Company will continue to strive for gender diversity and will establish measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity when it has grown to a point where it is appropriate to do so. The Board regularly reviews its policy and practical approach in achieving gender diversity to determine its adequacy for current circumstances and make appropriate recommendations where required. The Company's Corporate Governance Statement each year contains an update on the Company's compliance with the ASX's recommendations and the Company's Diversity Policy. (c)(3)(A) The Company currently has 15 employees and 7 consultants. 6 of the employees and 2 of the consultants are women. The Company has 3 women in Senior Executive positions with the definition of a "senior executive" according to generally well known market practice and definitions. The Company has 1 female director. This will continue to be reviewed in accordance with each review of the Board's skills and requirements in accordance with the Company's Diversity Policy. (c)(3)(B) The entity is not a "relevant employer".
1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Chairman is responsible for overseeing the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • evaluation and review of the performance of the Board and its committees (other than the Chairman); and • evaluation and review of the performance of individual directors (other than the Chairman); The Chairman should disclose the process for evaluating the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual directors. The Board (other than the Chairman) is responsible for the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • evaluation and review of the performance of the Chairman; and • review of the effectiveness and programme of Board meetings. The process for the performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees and Directors generally involves an internal review. From time to time as the Company's needs and circumstances require, the Board may

		commission an external review of the Board, and its composition. (b) An informal review of the Board was carried out in October 2018 with the last formal review of the Board prior to that occurring in April 2018 leading to a restructure of the Board with the former Managing Director, Michael Addison, moving to a Non-Executive Director role, the appointment of Teresa Dyson as a Non-Executive Director and the appointment of James Harding to the role of CEO (previously Executive General Manager). It is the Board's current intention that the next formal review of the Board will be undertaken following the appointment of the nominated director from J-Power, which is subject to the approval of shareholders at an Extraordinary General Meeting scheduled for 18 September 2020 and following financial close of the Company's Kidston Pumped Storage Hydro Project.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Board will monitor the performance of senior management, including measuring actual performance against planned performance. The Board Charter sets out the process to be followed in evaluating the performance of senior executives. Each senior executive is required to participate in a formal review process which assesses individual performance against predetermined objectives. (b) An evaluation of the performance of the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operations Officer and other senior executives will take place at the same time as a formal Board evaluation scheduled to occur in late 2020 following financial close of the Company's Kidston Pumped Storage Hydro Project.
	Principle 2: Structure the Board to be effective and add value	The Board of a listed entity should be of an appropriate size and collectively have the skills, commitment and knowledge of the entity and the industry in which it operates, to enable it to discharge its duties effectively, and to add value.
	Recommendations
2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual	The Company does not comply with this Recommendation. (a) The Board, as a whole, currently serves as the Company's Nomination Committee. Terms and conditions of employees are negotiated by the MD/CEO in consultation with the Board's two executive directors and the Chief Operations Officer for recommendation to the Board. As the Company grows in size it is planned that the Company will implement a separate Nomination Committee with its own separate Nomination Committee charter.

	attendances of the members at those meetings; OR (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	(b) While the Board does not currently comply with this recommendation, given the stage of the Company's operations and relatively small number of employees, the Board is of the view that it is currently structured in such a way so as to add value and is appropriate for the complexity of the business at this time. The Board shall ensure that, collectively, it has the appropriate range of skills and expertise to properly fulfil its responsibilities, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • accounting; • finance; • business; • legal, regulatory and compliance; • the renewable energy industry; • Managing Director/CEO-level experience; and • relevant technical expertise. The Board shall review the range of expertise of its members on a regular basis and ensure that it has operational and technical expertise relevant to the operation of the Company.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Board will determine the procedure for the selection and appointment of new Directors and the re-election of incumbents in accordance with the Company's Constitution, the ASX Listing Rules and having regard to the ability and independence of the individual to contribute to the ongoing effectiveness of the Board, to exercise sound business judgement, to commit the necessary time to fulfil the requirements of the role effectively and to contribute to the development of the strategic direction, purpose and values of the Company. The Board shall ensure that, collectively, it has the appropriate range of skills and expertise to properly fulfil its responsibilities, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • accounting; • finance; • business; • legal, regulatory and compliance • the renewable energy industry; • Managing Director-level experience; and • relevant technical expertise. The mix of skills of the current Board is set out on the Company's website.
2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) Currently only 2 of the 6 directors are considered to be independent given that Michael Addison was formerly the Managing Director until 7 May 2018, Simon Kidston is an Executive Director, Ben Guo is the Finance Director (which is an executive role) and

	compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Yongqing Yu is the representative of the Company's second largest shareholder. The independent directors are Dr Ralph Craven, the Company's Non-Executive Chairman, and Ms Teresa Dyson, both Non-Executive Directors (b) Not applicable. While each of the directors have received grants of options approved by shareholders in the past, these have not had any specific performance hurdles or vesting milestones attached other than an exercise price well above the share price as at the date of the grant. Additionally, while the independent directors do receive payments for services rendered over and above their duties as non-executive independent directors, these are not performance based payments but payments for services provided on an arm's length basis and not of sufficient duration for the independence of these directors to be compromised. For example, services of this nature have been provided by the independent directors to assist Genex's small management team during periods of significant workload and where additional expertise has been required in relation to the Company's Jemalong and Kidston Pumped Storage Hydro Projects. The services are not of an ongoing nature. (c) The Directors were appointed to the Board as follows: Dr Ralph Craven – 29 May 2015 Mr Michael Addison – 15 July 2011 Mr Simon Kidston - 1 August 2013 Mr Ben Guo – 25 October 2013 Mr Yongqing Yu – 8 February 2016 Ms Teresa Dyson – 7 May 2018
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	The Company does not comply with this Recommendation. The Company does not currently have a majority of independent directors. However, the Board is of the view that notwithstanding that it does not currently comply with this recommendation, it nonetheless has the appropriate mix of skills and experience for the Company's present stage of operations. The Company does however have a majority of Non-Executive directors comprising 4 of the 6 directors.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company's current Chairman is Dr Ralph Craven who is an independent director and is not engaged in any executive role within the Company either as CEO, Managing Director or equivalent.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to	The Company complies with this Recommendation. Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter the Board must implement an appropriate induction and

	undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	education process for new Board appointees and Senior Executives to enable them to gain a better understanding of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the Company's financial, strategic, operational and risk management position; • the rights, duties and responsibilities of the directors; • the roles and responsibilities of Senior Executives; and • the role of Board committees. Existing directors are required to participate in development initiatives from time to time including in relation to health and safety. Upon appointment to the Board, each new director receives a copy of the Company's Constitution, corporate governance policies, corporate insurances and any other documents requested by the director to assist in their induction.
	Principle 3: Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly	A listed entity should instil and continually reinforce a culture across the organisation of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly.
	Recommendations
3.1	A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company's statement of values is displayed on the Company's website as follows: "Genex Power is committed to the development and delivery of clean renewable energy to as many Australian households as possible. Genex strives to conduct its business in the most ethical, socially responsible, sustainable and transparent manner possible, at all times acting with integrity and respect for all of its stakeholders. Genex's core values include looking after local communities and regions which surround Genex's projects by providing jobs, investment and economic stimulation".
3.2	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that code.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Company has a "Code of Conduct for Directors and Key Officers" which includes senior executives and employees; and (b) Any material breaches of this policy are brought directly before the Board.
3.3	A listed entity should: (a) Have and disclose a whistleblower policy; and (b) Ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material incidents reported under that policy.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Company has a whistleblower policy; and (b) Any material breaches of this policy are brought directly before the Board.
3.4	A listed entity should: (a) Have and disclose an anti-bribery and corruption policy; and	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Company has a policy titled "Code of Conduct – the Company's obligations to Stakeholders" which operates as the

	(b) Ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that policy.	Company's anti-bribery and corruption policy; and (b) Any material breaches of this policy are brought directly before the Board.
	Principle 4: Safeguard the integrity of corporate reports	A listed entity should have appropriate processes to verify the integrity of its corporate reports.
	Recommendations
4.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; OR (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Company has an Audit and Risk Management Committee which: (1) has 3 members being Ms Teresa Dyson, Dr Ralph Craven and Mr Michael Addison. All of the committee members are non-executive directors and a majority of the committee being Ms Teresa Dyson and Dr Ralph Craven are independent. (2) is chaired by an independent director being Ms Teresa Dyson who is not the chair of the board. (3) A copy of the policy titled "Charter of the Audit and Risk Management Committee of Genex Power Limited" is available on the Company's website. (4) The relevant qualifications and experience of the Committee members is available on the Company's website. (5) The Committee met 4 times in the financial year with all members present at the meeting. (b) Not applicable.
4.2	The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Board ensures, and has received on each occasion that it approves the Company's statutory accounts, the appropriate declarations and assurances including a declaration from the Chief Financial Officer that the Company's accounts have been kept in accordance with section 295A of the Corporations Act 2001 and received such declarations in the financial year.
4.3	A listed entity should disclose its process to verify the integrity of any periodic corporate report it releases to the market that is not audited or reviewed by an external auditor.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company ensures that a copy of every announcement to the market is sent to every Board member and senior executive for review and comment prior to release to the ASX which includes the Company's Appendix 4C and associated commentary every quarter. The Board is of the view that having each announcement reviewed includes an appropriate and necessary level of oversight of all statements made to the market.

	Principle 5: Make Timely and Balanced Disclosure	A listed entity should make timely and balanced disclosure of all matters concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of its securities.
	Recommendations:
5.1	A listed entity should have and disclose a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under listing rule 3.1.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company has a continuous disclosure program/policy in place designed to ensure compliance with the ASX Listing Rules on continuous disclosure and to ensure accountability at a senior executive level for compliance and factual presentation of the Company's financial position.
5.2	A listed entity should ensure that its board receives copies of all material market announcements promptly after they have been made.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company Secretary ensures that a copy of all market announcements is provided to the Board either immediately before or immediately after release to the ASX. This practice has been adopted by the Company since its IPO in 2015.
5.3	A listed entity that gives a new and substantive investor or analyst presentation should release a copy of the presentation materials on the ASX Market Announcements Platform ahead of the presentation.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. As stated in the responses to 4.3 and 5.2, the Company ensures that a copy of every announcement to the market is sent to every Board member and senior executive for review and comment prior to release to the ASX which includes any new and substantive investor presentation. The Company Secretary also ensures that a copy of the investor presentation is provided to the Board either immediately before or immediately after release to the ASX.
	Principle 6: Respect the Rights of Security Holders	A listed entity should provide its security holders with appropriate information and facilities to allow them to exercise their rights as security holders effectively.
	Recommendations:
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company's Corporate Governance Plan includes a shareholder communications strategy which aims to ensure that shareholders are informed of all major developments affecting the Company's state of affairs. This is contained within the Company's policies titled " Code of Conduct – Obligations to Stakeholders " and " Corporate Governance Policy – Continuous Disclosure ". The policies are available on the Company's website.
6.2	A listed entity should have an investor relations program that facilitates effective two-way communication with investors.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company's Corporate Governance Plan includes a shareholder communications strategy which is outlined in 6.1.
6.3	A listed entity should disclose how it facilitates and encourages participation at meetings of security holders.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company's Corporate Governance Plan includes a shareholder communications strategy which is outlined in 6.1. The Company also encourages shareholders to attend the Company's AGM either in person or virtually during the current COVID-19 pandemic, and to ask questions of the Board and the Auditor and/or to submit questions in writing in advance.

6.4	A listed entity should ensure that all substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are decided by a poll rather than by a show of hands.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company has implemented a policy of ensuring that all resolutions at an AGM or EGM are decided by a poll.
6.5	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company has such a practice already in place for all shareholders.
	Principle 7: Recognise and Manage Risk	A listed entity should establish a sound risk management framework and periodically review the effectiveness of that framework
	Recommendations
7.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; OR (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Board in conjunction with the Audit and Risk Management Committee determines the Company's "risk profile" and is responsible for overseeing and approving risk management strategy and policies, internal compliance and internal control. (1) has 3 members being Ms Teresa Dyson, Dr Ralph Craven and Mr Michael Addison. All of the committee members are non-executive and a majority of the committee being Ms Teresa Dyson and Dr Ralph Craven are independent. (2) is chaired by an independent director being Ms Teresa Dyson who is not the Chair of the Board. (3) A copy of the policy titled " Charter of the Audit and Risk Management Committee of Genex Power Limited " is available on the Company's website. (4) The members of the committee are Ms Teresa Dyson (Chair), Dr Ralph Craven (Member) and Mr Michael Addison (member). (5) The Committee met 4 times during the reporting period with all members as constituted at the time in attendance. (b) Not applicable.
7.2	The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound and that the entity is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the board; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Company has established policies for the oversight and management of material business risks. The Audit and Risk Management Charter of the Company is available on the Company's website. The responsibility for undertaking and assessing risk management and internal control effectiveness is delegated to the Board in conjunction with the Audit and Risk Committee. The Board and Audit and Risk Management Committee are required to assess risk management and associated internal compliance and control procedures and will be responsible for ensuring

		the process for managing risks is integrated within business planning and management activities. Reports on risk management are to be provided to the Board by the Audit and Risk Management Committee at the first Board meeting subsequent to each Committee meeting. (b) A formal review of the Company's risk management framework occurs at every Board meeting with the Board reviewing and prioritising the top risks faced by the Company as advised by the COO in conjunction with the Audit & Risk Management Committee. A formal review and planning session analysing and assessing the Company's risk register occurred a number of times through the reporting period between the Audit & Risk Management Committee and the executive team.
7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; OR (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its governance, risk management and internal control processes.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Company's internal audit function is exercised by the Finance Director, Mr Ben Guo, in conjunction with a full time financial controller employed by the Company to ensure a level of segregation particularly in relation to processes and procedures around such things as payment authorisations and limits of authority. (b) Not applicable.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to environmental or social risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Company is not aware of any potential material exposure to economic and environmental risks not otherwise already disclosed in its previous announcements and periodic reports to the ASX and also emphasises the summary of non-exclusive risks outlined in the Company's Replacement Prospectus lodged with ASIC on 10 June 2015. In relation to any potential, but as yet unknown, environmental risk, the Company has an environmental assurance bond with the Queensland Government for $3,804,311 and is undertaking an Environmental Evaluation Process in conjunction with the Queensland Department of Environment and Science in relation to amending the terms of its current Environmental Authority over the Kidston site in Queensland. These risks are managed through a regular risk session involving key members of management, the Audit & Risk Committee and the Board.
	Principle 8: Remunerate Fairly and Responsibly	A listed entity should pay director remuneration sufficient to attract and retain high quality directors and design its executive remuneration to attract, retain and motivate high quality senior executives and to align their interests with the creation of value

		for security holders and with the entity's values and risk appetite.
	Recommendations
8.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; OR (b) if it does not have a remuneration committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for setting the level and composition of remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) The Board has established a separate Remuneration Committee which: (1) has 3 members being Dr Ralph Craven, Ms Teresa Dyson and Mr Simon Kidston. 8.2	A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. The Committee distinguishes the structure of non-executive directors' remuneration from that of executive directors and senior executives. The Company's Constitution and the Corporations Act also provides that the remuneration of non-executive Directors will be not be more than the aggregate fixed sum determined by a general meeting. The Board is responsible for determining the remuneration of the executive directors (without the participation of the affected director).
8.3	A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. (a) A summary of the Company's policy on prohibiting transactions in associated products which operate to limit the risk of participating in unvested entitlements under any equity based remuneration scheme is contained within the Remuneration Committee Charter. (b) Paragraph 6.2 (3) of the Company's Remuneration Committee Charter states: "...The Committee must ensure that, where applicable, any payments of equity-based remuneration are made in accordance with the Company's constitution and any thresholds approved by the Company's shareholders. Committee members must be aware at all times of the limitations of equity-based remuneration. The terms of such schemes should clearly prohibit entering into transactions or arrangements which limit the economic risk of participating in unvested entitlements under these schemes. The exercise of any entitlements under these

		schemes should be timed to coincide with any trading windows under the Company's securities trading policy..."
	Principle 9:
	Recommendations:
9.1	A listed entity with a director who does not speak the language in which board or security holder meetings are held or key corporate documents are written should disclose the process it has in place to ensure the director understands and can contribute to the discussions at those meetings and understands and can discharge their obligations in relation to those documents.	The Company complies with this Recommendation. Mr Yongqing Yu, a non-executive director based in China and the representative of the Company's second largest shareholder, Asia Ecoenergy Development Limited, does not speak English. Mr Yu has an appointed representative who is a senior executive of that entity, who is able to interpret communications including relevant Board material with Mr Yu.
